

Dear People. My name is Christopher Csatlos. PLEASE READ THIS!

From the ‘politicians’ whom are really actually so merely puppets, all working towards the same general insane goal of the enslavement of all of life; it is exactly as H.S.T. said - “that these people wouldn’t care if there were no more trees left on this earth, except for the ones in their own backyards”.

This shit has been going on since “jesus”*, 2023 years ago. And I am going to end it. Well- we will.

I am hopeful to find supporters of my intentions in the bringing of an entirely new (weird since it is the essence of this construct of existing is the very essential foundation which was and still is, to those who know. Realists. They’re classified as. I don’t appreciate the labelling of persons.

How can some thing entirely unique be labelled in any precise way?

On that note; It is fact that most of the contemporary world’s people lack a operating mind, in individualism and sensibility in idea, opinion, and other matters of psychological conception, entirely disabling their capacity to be human*.

MY WEBSITE’S ADDRESS IS-

<https://executingreality.com/>

My reason for creating this website, the written documents which are provided through its pages, was for the aid of the broadening of persons perceptions and – I’d hoped, also to of course open their eyes to truth and the supply chain of bull shit, courtesy of this and that. It’s a little more than just the government or “government”. Complicated. I will not concern the reader with the most incredible act of treason undertaken against everything.

We're heading for 50 years of chaos and rubble or maybe the end unless we can figure out a peaceful tolerant situation where people who don't agree with each other can live ...

I will – or we will, together, those whom are on-board – which should really be everybody, provided that they are a person and not a “person” bring on a new – oddly enough – as it is really the original paradigm for the architectural operation and organisational functioning of the universe.

I believe that such eras have existed in the past, for particular reasons. The Egyptian Age, as an example.

It’s like- They wonder how the pyramids were constructed, and what Schroedinger’s equation provides description of. I know these things, and quite a lot more.

UNITED WE STAND. DIVIDED WE FALL.

Hopefully I will find people to help me. I know that they do exist. Otherwise I will do it alone. And I won’t fail.

I, or we, because help would be GOOD! And I need a girlfriend. But that’s besides the point.

As H.S.T. has always said and practised in his life, “If something is worth doing, then it is worth doing right”. Therefore I have always applied critical verification and confirming of the validity of the truthfulness of the information which I provide on my website.
