

FOREWORD:

I have - through my past, been very easily able to not move a fraction out of my chair where I happen to be working away enthusiastically and become entirely lost, for quite a substantial proportion of time's duration. This is important, maybe. I like it, this makes it so. Each to their own, woo, woo. Enjoy your time of day, space voyagers, boo yah.

BOO! Now if that ain't fucking frightening, I do not know what the shit is. Srs. No hands, even. Fuck. And I am spastic, or they're surely some clinical reason that I (used) to ingest baclofen like there was no tomorrow... Despite the senseless baclofen-fuelled chronicles as it stood a primary psychoactive profile illustrator for a period of just precisely a shy greater than a one whole decade. How? How am I still alive? It's just fucking strange, when I was aged between my latter teenage years and the second decade milestone, well- I can say that I did NOT see this, reaching such an age. I am almost fucking forty! Wah. I accidentally took almost two months of wasted time off of my ADD (preferred term, here. Due to the reason I'd made known elsewhere in my previous writings, it is simply due to the lack of including within the psychiatric disorder there, the feature and presentation of hyperactivity, lending the term to feature greater broad inclusion in within its catchment in medical nomenclature. In complete fairness to life, and commitment to act with worth and purpose and usefulness, in integrity to, it is without a question to my immediate-most thought on this matter is solely of that being that with complete regard to semantic relation here; it is that there is medicine/drug abuse, which I've never known as I've never actually abused anything. In all truth. Up until very recently, in all honesty, as I am a man of integrity almost entirely exclusively, as it is just m nature to be in this manner, and anything against is in strict and total opposition to my natural inner feeling of 'how to proceed', that is; reason. Which provides us bringing to consideration rendering antics Scary? Because oh seems to me to be that certainly members of the terrestrial sector of earth's starry-eyed perplexed wanderers . Oh I firstly offer my most sincere apologies for interrupting what was probably off the walls (Vans (TM) well- I don't care. STAY ON THEM IF ANYBODY IS TELLING YOU OTHERWISE! IMHO.)

Please continue on with your rockin' killa disco dancing! Also maybe the, on initial glance and interpretation of the semantic acknowledgement of the mental conception and cognitive assessment of the URL for this web presence initially may be scary so if you were ascaered, shoot some meth or drive your canoe into parliament. I did prefer my previous domain which I write of about below, although it is incredible the sheer quantity of 'apparent' laws that this website's content came into not abiding by. But of this, this is because I am sane and not a criminal. Which is not the same as the world's current 'established, and otherwise understood figures and departments or buildings of arbitrary (essentially self-assigned and with complete disinclusion of EVERY FUCKING BODY, and OTHER WHATEVER EARTH BEINGS) authority agencies and organisations'. This is a why a camel would be a quite capable form of terrestrial counter-culture use in the war which we've been at since about roughly, 2023 years ago. To the EXTREMELY BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE. It also would appear to me to be the case that the last widespread and large-scale adoption and fellowship of lifestyle practices and living and practical ideologies in follow with strict natural logic, reason and law. In all of our philosophical underpinnings in matters which play determinant factors in guiding and act as anchors to a manner of being in a whole sense of a ... UNIVERSE. To be entirely fair, and direct. It's like why stop at the red traffic signal? LOL. Even more surprising to your fellow commuters is is you not only reverse park your 'motor vehicle' right into the lake, but floor it straight through a red 'light' HAHA. I've seen this and it is well-amusing. Please respect and be mindful of the well-being of those good patrons of space earth time like yourself, ...

Those whom are NOT dancing simply cannot hear the music. THIS IS SUNSHINE, OR IF IT IS NOT; IT IS MOON REFLECTED COLOUR-BAND EMR! OAHAAH IT'S LIKE A FUCKING LOLCAT SLASH RAINBOW GENERATOR. It is a very simply truth and it very much causes me to recall my very founding concept which led me to my quite articulate and well-stated identification of the very seamless dormancy of which that the vast majority of nature assumes to the (unfortunately? all-too-common-eye ... [... And you can't seem to see the forest from the trees ...]). But yes, I wrote something along that, "much of the very integral and essential foundation beauty of natures lays in complete seamless integrity dormant and un-lending to the visual perception and knowing of the common-observer's-eye ..? Seems this, though a responsible and healthy (worthwhile) strength dosage of lysergic-acid diethylamide, [.5mg to 1mg] permits this dormant and "hidden" to a far too significant extend of the sentient living, of a place. I did always believe it to be very true that memantine is great in that it allows you to remain calm and not be falsely led into rushing on by through your life, it; as I'd witnessed it very really doing so, is that it brings your living pace down slowing your physical hurry and as-well as your virtue of patience in experiencing your surrounds. Writing in my initial conception of this 'horrible' [LOL, it really is- NEVER exceed 200mg, MEANWHILE please do not ever consume LESS than 200mg. LOL. Truth. Otherwise there's trouble, at-least this was my experience and lesson in this wonderful substance! But; it is true that; "Memantine slows your dance through your life, it slows the world, and the 'self' RIGHT down so that thus you're better capable and duly-able, indeed, at to enjoying and perceptibly witnessing the electromagnetic stimuli in your surrounds and interpreting it with a perception of not simply matter of unreverred grant. I ONCE SPOKE TO A STATUE FOR WHAT WOULD PROBABLY HAVE BEEN A TIME PERIOD OF BETWEEN TWENTY TO THIRTY HOURS, EASILY. I should say that on this occasion I'd administered a quite a healthy dosage of meth, and I was also I should make known- quite NEW to it at the time, this was during perhaps, 2013/2014..? Then I spent the remainder of the day giving it my best ability and effort applied in the construction of a 'rocket-propelled ping-pong table' LOL. And I'd probably have pieced together a workable prototype if I were not so simultaneously involved in the scaring of pedestrians with my recounting to their ears my memoir of a verbal accounting of the scenario which just had unfolded moment's prior.

It is that 'This patron is very much the 'Right way Up' a compass is not a necessary instrument of the matter, like neither do you a weatherman to let you know which way the sun is. LOL.'" This stands whether I have just accidentally over-indulged on the nicotine apparatus and am casually and unnoticeably throwing up in the garden beds beside a public children's playground in a park.

IT IS RELATIVE! What's new, Micky Mouse..? Well, I am a little talkative I hope I did not type trash, I did try my best to not, although this is not something which I must 'try' at to make it a quality of my writing, as it is known by those kind space folk whom have read and appreciated and enjoyed and found useful or even very much so, my literati treatises ... I've a good friend of mine to thank for assisting me in my purchasing of FUCKING METH! Proper, and good. The first fucking time in- ..? A LONG FUCKING TIME!!! OMFG. Well- I will stop this entry here, and wish to express to you all the most prosperous aspires in whatever prospects you hold. As I'd said a LONG, FUCKING, TIME, IN THE PAST NOW- "What the mind can conceive, it can achieve. Reality leaves a-lot up to the imagination!" Lol. Mhm...

Shit- I've wrote of these concepts verbatim many times in repetitive cyclic undertaking, now. Yes. I do recall with quite remarkable lucidity. I would say to set the motivation behind me straight.

It's good to be high, once again. Fuck- it was too long of an abstinence.

Restoration of Sanity by Nature. And the dismantling of far-too widespread of adoption of the illegitimacy of 'authority' and law makers non-compliance with Sanity, and the requisite predicate that is the absolute Truth to any one who alike myself retains their raw and inherent perceptive lacking of ascribing fabricated untruths to any objective element of this Universe, and instead proceeding ahead in the favouring of the lacking of the capacity to form judgement of a malicious nature which applied misconceived definition outside of the truthfulness of objectivity as declared by the uncontaminated perception. We must do-away with the lunatic regime and re-affirm with sturdy immobility in being shifted out of foundation placement as a key maker of all of the philosophical lifestyle and livelihood behavioural patterns upon a realistic world would have at its base the roots of Natural undeniable truthful origin.
